

Autlán receives approval from Cofece to acquire Metallorum

June 4, 2018

Compañía Minera Autlán, S.A.B. de C.V. (Autlán) informs the investing public that the Federal Commission of Economic Competition (Cofece) decided to authorize the operation by virtue of which Autlán will acquire all the shares representing the share capital of Metallorum Holding, S.A.P.I. de C.V. and Subsidiaries (Metallorum), in the terms described in the Information Brochure on Corporate Restructuring sent to the Mexican Stock Exchange on April 10. In addition, this Commission stated that the favorable resolution was granted in the absence of "monopolistic practices or other anti-competitive behavior that (...) diminish, damage or prevent free competition or economic competition". With this approval, the sale and purchase agreements are closed and the merger of Autlán as a merger and Metallorum as merged continues.

Autlán is a Mexican company with worldwide recognition for the quality and specialization of its products, strategic supplier of minerals and manganese ferroalloys. We generate value for our shareholders, staff and clients using the experience, the best available technology and future development projects as part of the values and growth of the company.

Metallorum is a Mexican company that develops and operates precious metals in Mexico and North America. With more than 50 mining licenses in the country, it seeks to generate value for its shareholders, collaborators and society in an integral way, through mining and responsible, sustainable and ethical metallurgy, always working with Safety, Hygiene, Order and Cleaning.

San Pedro Garza García, N.L. June 4, 2018

ir@autlan.com.mx